Crafters for Samaritans 2026: THANK YOU: to all who turned out last weekend to support our 24-Hour Craftathon and helped make it another great event. To all who helped create a 32 County Colours throw – a challenge at times but with everyone's help we managed to complete it just as the 24-hour bell rang out. Well done everyone. To all who donated goods to our craft shop most of which was snapped up. To those who baked for our coffee evening/morning. To Mattie, Alan & Mike for dropping us pizza late in the night. To those who were unable to attend but kindly donated online. To all who donated gifts and prizes for our raffle and to those who generously bought tickets. To Fr Jimmy for blessing the event and to Christine and her knitting group from Littleton for their kind donation of wool. To Mary & Michelle for keeping us fed and to Joan & Mary for bringing us warm bacon sandwiches early on Sunday morning just when they were needed. Finally, to the other six ladies that stayed the whole 24 hours thank you. Memories were made, tea was drank, laughs were a plenty, stories were told and friendships made stronger. To date a total of €3,183.43 has been raised and to say I'm blown away is an understatement and on behalf of the Samaritans THANK YOU.

Knit & Natter: Thanks to everyone who donated wool over the past few weeks. It is greatly appreciated and we have enough to keep us going for quite a while. We are taking a break for the rest of August and will meet again on Friday 4th September in the Pastoral Centre from 11am to 1pm. New members most welcome.

Doon CBS Thanks to all for your generous donations of clothes. We have now stopped accepting donations.
