The Paddy Dakar – Community Alert Notice. The annual motorbike orienteering challenge, The Paddy Dakar, takes place on the weekend of 11th and 12th September. This year, more than 200 motorbike riders will set off from Doon, Co. Limerick, travelling over 200 km as part of the event. We would like to ensure that everyone in the community is aware of the event and the increased activity it will bring to local areas. We kindly ask all road users, residents, farmers, landowners and anyone living, working or travelling in the area to please take note of the event and plan accordingly. There will be a high volume of motorbike traffic, particularly on rural roads and routes, throughout the weekend. We appreciate everyone's understanding and cooperation in helping to ensure the event runs safely and smoothly for participants and the wider community. We wish all involved a safe and enjoyable event and we thank you, the local communities for your support.
